If you are receiving this letter it is because our records indicate that you are currently serving as a Representative of CTiC (Churches Together in Chelmsford) on behalf of your church fellowship. Therefore, if you are no longer serving in this way the first thing I would ask, please, is that you pass this letter on to whoever has succeeded you in your role. And if you are still the CTiC rep for your church fellowship, please read on!

It gives me great pleasure to invite you to attend our CTiC AGM & “Come to Tea” Event on Sunday May 15th (Pentecost) at 3.30 pm at Moulsham St Luke’s. This year’s speakers are David Gilbey of Chelmsford 24-7 Prayer and Rob Saggs of CHESS so come and hear about their work and ministry, firsthand.

It is probably true to say that the Good Friday Walk of Witness is the biggest and the best thing we do together but since taking on the chairmanship of CTiC I have been keen to encourage people like yourself who kindly offer themselves as CTiC reps to take more of an active role in the fellowship that we share as Christians together in Chelmsford. Hence, at this year’s AGM we will be keen to receive your ideas as to how this might be achieved. It is therefore my hope that we can begin a conversation both during and following our meeting, when you are also invited to bring along any publicity materials from your church fellowship or organisation that will enable others to get to know you better. Tables will be provided in St Luke’s Large Hall for this purpose, when churches and church-related organisations are invited to bring and put up their displays. This is where the ‘Come to Tea’ part of the afternoon will come in – those present will be invited to pick up a tea or coffee and a cake, and then to view the displays, and to learn from one another how we’re serving our communities, what your needs might be and what or who we might pray for. The afternoon will begin and end with worship.

I do hope you or your successor can come. See you there.
With my thanks and all good wishes,

Revd Canon Carol Smith
Chair, CTiC
